This is to bring to your kind notice that persons detained under the Section 55/109 remain lying in the jails for a long period after the arrest by the police. Mr President,

Respected Sir,

It is to bring to his Excellency's notice and to draw your attention towards the human rights of two young girls detained in District Jail, Gujrat who are involved in abduction cases under section 11/7/79. The particulars are as follows

1. Miss Saiba D/o Khalid Ali Age 11 years

Mr President :

It is only logical that a teenage girl of eleven years doesnot even know the offence of kidnapping and how can she be involved in such a heinous crime. This girl's brother has abducted a girl and the said girl is suffering on his account, lying in the jail. It is doubly against the justice and human rights. It is really surprising that police authority cannot judge such a thing and discharge the innocents while the case is to be registered.

Chief Minister's Punjab

I would like to bring in your kind notice about the detainment of the two young and one juvenile (twelve years old orphan child) who are detained in the district jail, Sheikhupura under Section 55/109 of Cr.p.c which is neither crime nor any offence. They are just caught by police and sent to jail on suspicion.

Your honour has already advised the administration to release the prisoners detained under minor offences. Actually such prisoners are a burden on the state and have over-crowded the jails. Every jail of the Punjab is over-crowded four times more than the actual capacity. Due to such prisoners the environment of the jails and living conditions are pretty miserable.

I have requested the Deputy Commissioner, Sheikhupura to release those prisoners mentioned above but no action has been taken by him until yet.

Please take necessary action about the matter, as both the sections are inconsistent with and in derogation of fundamental rights guaranteed by the constitution of the country. Hundred of human beings are being detained under these sections in the jails every year through out Pakistan whom kept lying in the jails for months. All of them belong to poor and labour class.

The police use these sections to oblige the influential people and feudal lords to punish their rebelling servants and some times it help the favourites to harass their rivals by sending them to jails.

Thanking you

Yours truly

PETITION UNDER ARTICLE 199 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF PAKISTAN.

Respectfully sheweth:

1. That the petitioner Society is created for charitable and other welfare purposes and is registered with Govt. of Punjab and Mr.Fayyaz Mansoor is its President who is competent to file the present petition on behalf of the Society. Copy of Registration is Annexure-A.

2. That at the very outset, it is submitted that the present petition is in the shape of a pro bono publico as well as on the basis of rights of the petitioner as a Society registered and existing under the laws of Islamic Republic of Pakistan as well as rights of its members including Mr.Fayyaz Mansoor through whom the present petition is being filed.

3. That according to Article 9 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan no person is to be deprived of life or liberty save in accordance with law. According to Article 10, no person can be detained as a measure of preventive detention unless he is acting in a manner prejudicial to the integrity, security or defence of Pakistan or any part thereof or external affairs of Pakistan or public order or the maintenance of supplies or services and that no law providing for preventive detention shall authorise the detention of a person for a period of exceeding 3 months. Article 14 provides that the dignity of man shall be inviolable.

4. That according to provisions of Sections 55 and 109 of Criminal Procedure Code 1898 any person can be arrested if he is found taking precautions to conceal his presence under circumstances which afford a police officer reasons to believe that he is taking such precautions with a view to committing a cognizable offence or if he is a person who has no ostensible means of subsistence or who can not give a satisfactory account of himself or if he is a person who by repute is habitual rober, house breaker or habitual receiver of stolen property knowing it to be stolen or who by repute habitually commits or in order to commit extortion puts persons in fear of injury.

5. That both the provisions of Sections 55 and 109 Cr.P.C. are inconsistent with and in derogation of fundamental rights guaranteed by the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan as well as are against the teaching and injunction of Islam or the following amongst other

G R O U N D S

- a) That in fact provisions of Section 55 and 109 Cr.P.C. are against the dignity of human beings as from the tenor of the provisions, it is clear that only those persons who have no ostensible means of subsistence (i.e. are poor persons) can be arrested by the Police. After their arrest, and production before the concerned Magistrate, it is not clear as to under what provisions of law they can be further detained or released.
- b) That Sections 55 gives unlimited powers to Police Officers to make a guess whether a person is going to commit an offence and or if by intention or otherwise according to his thoughts, the Police Officer comes to a divine conclusion that the person is going to commit an offence, he will have authority to detain the person and after lapse of 24 hours to produce him before the Magistrate.
- c) That the Jails are full of people who were arrested under the provisions of Section 55 Cr.P.C. and as there was no one to come after them and to spend money at appropriate places to procure their release, they can only pray to Almighty for their ~~release~~ release. The crime of having no such relation or ready money, results in indefinite detention of such a poor soul at the mercy of the District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Magistrate who may during his rare visit of the Jail, think fit to release, such citizen of Pakistan after his detention for months together. The law does not provide the circumstances in which such person can be released except that unfettered powers have been given to the Police and the Administration to keep or release such persons according to their whims.
- d) That during a visit of District Jail, Gujrat by President of the petitioner Trust, the said President came across a child who was arrested by the Police and was in Jail for months. The said President, made a written request to the Deputy Commissioner Gujrat for release of the child on 21.5.96. The Deputy Commissioner required the Magistrate of the area to take necessary action however, the said Magistrate refused to release the said child who belonged to another District. Copy of the letter and that of order thereon is annexed as Annexure-B.

e) That from the very language used in the impugned sections, it is clear that commission of offence is not necessary for putting the provisions of the impugned Sections in motion and it is just the sweet will of the officials concerned whether to allow any person to remain outside the Jail or to confine him away from the hustle and bustle of outside world.

f) That this law also does not distinguish between a person of sound mind, a person of unsound mind or even a person of sound mind but by habit who is absent minded.

g) That as is clear from the wording of the Section it is not at all necessary for the police to trouble to investigate the matter. They have been allowed just to stop a person and if he does not give answers to the liking of the Police Officer, he has the authority to put him behind bars.

h) That the President of the Trust who is also a non-official visitor of jail appointed by Govt. of the Punjab, as such visited different Jails and found that in every Jail there were 5 to 12 persons who were arrested for months together usually young ones under the provisions of Section 55 and 109 Cr.P.C.

i) That although it is clear that these provisions were incorporated in Criminal Procedure Code by colonial Masters to keep the subjects on the right track yet the democratic Constitution of Pakistan has been disregarded by the successive Governments in allowing provisions of Sections 55 and 109 Cr.P.C. to remain on the statute book as a legacy of our colonial and to some spiritual masters.

j) That the fact that these provisions are meant only for the poor sections of the public is also evident when one sees that no well to do person has ever been arrested under the said provisions and it is always the poor people of Pakistan who were made victims of these provisions of law.

This fact also makes the provisions discriminatory and against the mandate of article 25 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan.

k) That the petitioner has no other adequate remedy available to it except to invoke the constitutional jurisdiction of this Hon'able Court.

It is therefore, respectfully prayed that an order may kindly be made declaring that the provisions of Sections 55 and 109 Cr.P-C. are inconsistent with and in derogation of the fundamental rights conferred by Chapter-I of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan as well as the basic principles of Islam. The said provisions may kindly be ordered to be removed from the statute book.

Any other relief to which the petitioner is found entitled may also be granted.

Petitioner.
